NLArts programs are taught by artists in residence along with professional educators to recognize and teach to children's individual learning styles and interests. Our goal is to expand each child's appreciation for, and participation in, their community by connecting them with the wealth of artistic, cultural, academic, and historic resources in Philadelphia. For more information about our programs, please visit our website at www.nlarts.org.

NLArts will not discriminate on the basis of intellectual ability, athletic ability, measures of achievement or aptitude, status as a person with a disability, proficiency in the English language or any other basis that would be illegal. Nor does the program discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, national origin, ethnic origin, religious beliefs or political affiliation.
